

STEVE WHALEN MEMORIAL POLICING AWARD

*Honoring
Dayton Police Department
Employees Who Embody
Dedication and Commitment to Their Community*

HISTORY OF THE AWARD

Steve Whalen epitomized the Community oriented servant. His continuing involvement in community affairs and easy availability for individuals and groups will always be remembered.

It has been said the primary business of government is not to direct the affairs of the community, but to harmonize the direction in which the community gives to its affairs. Steve Whalen was one who helped provide this direction.

In this light, the Steve Whalen Memorial Policing Award has been established to recognize Dayton Police Department employees whose work symbolizes Steve Whalen's commitment to his community.

CRITERIA

Nominees must:

- ◆ Embody dedication for their profession and dedication to their community.
- ◆ Be a sworn Dayton Police Department employee when nominated.
- ◆ Be a continually productive Police Department employee.
- ◆ Demonstrate a firm commitment to the Dayton Police Department, its ideals, and the Community-Based Policing philosophy.
- ◆ Be involved in community activities beyond the scope of their normal work requirements.
